

English(more ideas)

Reading

Colourful semantics to describe the story

Rhyme time with the massage story

Read and match the 'silly words' such as 'jelly' and 'elephant'= 'jellyphant'

Match the rhyming words together

Phonics

Phase 2

And phase 3 phonics

Writing

Look at finger spaces between words

Make letters and words with spaghetti

Trace and follow squiggly lines

Squiggle while you wiggle

Fine motor skills and mark making in messy play.

Communication

Listening to stop and don't

Can they talk about the humour of the book?

Our World(more ideas)

Computing

Use the computer to watch the story come alive

Find out information on the different animals in the story using the internet.

Forest school

Can you make mud jelly?

Collect leaves and sticks to make a 'fire' to cook your mud pie.

Science

Look at different food textures

Liquids to solids ( melt jelly into liquid)

Cooking

Make jelly

Make spaghetti

Make a pie

Make milkshake

WOW! (more ideas)

PSHE

Healthy Eating (more ideas)

Can they choose which food are healthy and unhealthy.

Working together

Can you work together to mix different food ingredients.

Participate in team building games.

How do we keep clean

Help tidy up and put things in order

Don't Put Your Finger in the Jelly, Nelly

Maths

Number

Partitioning and combining numbers within 10

Numicon stamping

Number blocks

Shape, Space and Measure

Weigh out ingredients for cooking

Look at heavy objects and light objects

Physical Health and Wellbeing(more ideas)

Physical Health—

Wellbeing

Talk about healthy foods and portion sizes

Life Skills

Make jelly

Share food with friends

Sensory

Explore Jelly

Explore different types and texture of food.

Creativity(more ideas)

Music

Make a class rap about the story

Using the rhyming words can they create their own song/ read it to a rhythm

Creative Arts

Role play fruit shop