

Literacy

Tell the story using props, puppets or real objects. Explore food - through play and Touch and Taste. Involve children in the story, take turns to be Jim (wear Jim top and wig) Talk about characters and act out responses. Ask the some children to help sequence the story, what's next? Some children supported to find pictures write lists of favourite their foods.

Phonics group: introduce phonics fairy stories, learn action, caption and play games with each letter.

Attention Time:

Focus: Use food based and eating objects

Anticipation: Story, party based activities

Turn taking: Pass the Jam Jim with party food and celebrations focus

FOOD - Chocolate Mousse for Greedy Goose

Julia Donaldson and Nick Sharratt

Expressive Arts and Design Paint, collage and craft, making different foods from the story. Class display.

Sensory and Play

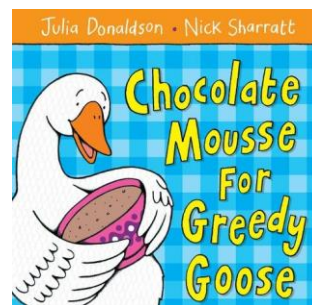

Role play - kitchen and cooking.
Picnics and tea parties.
Dolls house - act out daily routines.
Sensory exploration with a variety of foods and textures.
Make and explore play dough food.

WOW!

Visit supermarket with a list to shop for Touch and Taste.
Invite parents to afternoon tea made by children.
May not be possible due to Covid

Personal, Social + Emotional Development

Act out mealtimes at home and school.
Discuss likes and dislikes.
Sharing and turn taking.
Serving out food and sharing with others.

Physical Development

Outdoor learning using tools to garden and grow food.
Parachute games and songs around food.
Adventure area, explore surface and levels

Maths

Number

Number rhymes and songs and number from our story, Food focus, setting table, counting plates etc
Moving on when ready to counting, ordering, comparing groups of numbers, addition and subtraction.

Spatial Awareness

Looking in more detail within the classroom environment, position and direction,

Pattern

Explores and makes simple, patterns involving food.

Shape

Shows an awareness of shapes, recognising, joining together and naming.

Understanding the world

People and communities

What do people eat at different occasions? Parties, birthdays, different festivals.

Technology and world

Exploring different tools for cooking, chopping, grating etc.