Privacy notice for Parents and Carers

Under Data Protection Law, individuals have a right to be informed about how Castle School, Cambridge uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing privacy notices to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about Parents and Carers.

We, Castle School, are the 'Data Controller' for the purposes of Data Protection Law.

Our Data Protection Officer is The ICT Service (see 'Complaints' / 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold:

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about parents may include, but is not restricted to:

- Name, address and date of birth,
- Contact details, contact preferences, identification documents
- Characteristics such as ethnic background, first language
- Employment details such as place of work, occupation, job title, NI number
- Whether there is a court order in place restricting the parent's access to their child

We may also hold data about parents that we have received from other organisations, including other schools, local authorities and the Department for Education.

Why we use this data:

We use this data to:

- Provide appropriate pastoral care.
- Protect student/pupil welfare.
- Administer admissions waiting lists.
- Comply with the law regarding data sharing.

Our legal basis for using this data:

We only collect and use parents' personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we process it where:

- We need to comply with a legal obligation.
- We need it to perform an official task in the public interest.

Less commonly, we may also process parents' personal data in situations where:

- We have obtained consent to use it in a certain way.
- We need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else's interests).

Where we have obtained consent to use parents' personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using parents' personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data.

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect about parents is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional. If it is mandatory, we will explain the possible consequences of not complying.

How we store this data

We keep personal information about students/pupils and their parents while they are attending our school. We may also keep it beyond their attendance at our school if this is necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations. We store this data in both digital and paper based formats. We keep personal data according to the Retention Schedule set out in the Information and Record Management Society's Toolkit for Schools. This can be found here.

Data sharing:

We do not share information about parents with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about parents with:

- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and exclusions
- The Department for Education – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it.
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for, including the Youth Support Service for pupils aged 13+.
- Survey and research organisations – to help us fulfil our public task.
- Health authorities – to meet our legal obligation to keep our pupils safe.
- Health and social welfare organisations – to meet our legal obligation and to protect our pupils.
- Charities and voluntary organisations - to help us fulfil our public task and to protect the pupils.
- Police forces, courts, tribunals – to meet our legal obligations to share information with them.

Youth Support Services Agreement:

Providing information to providers of youth support services and the right to opt out.

Once your child is aged 13 or over, we are required by law to pass on certain information to providers of youth support services in your area. This is the local authority support service for young people and 13 to 19 in England. We must provide both the child's and parent's name(s) and address, and any further information relevant to the support services' role.

However, if the child is over 16, the child (or the parent(s)) can ask that no information beyond names, address and date of birth be passed to the support service. Please see below on how to opt-out of this arrangement.

The school will not give information about you to anyone outside of the school without your consent unless the law and rules allow us to.

The school is required by law to pass some information about you to the Local Authority and the Department for Education (DfE)

To Opt Out

If you wish to opt out of this arrangement, please inform the Office Manager at Castle School by emailing Office@castle.cambs.sch.uk

Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside United Kingdom, we will do so in accordance with Data Protection Law.

Parents' and Carers rights regarding personal data

Individuals have a right to make a 'Subject Access Request' to gain access to personal information that the school holds about them.

If you make a Subject Access Request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it.
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for.
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you or your child.
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with.
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this.
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

Other rights

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- Object to the use of personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress.
- Prevent it being used to send direct marketing.
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person).
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing.
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact the Office Manager at Castle School Office@castle.cambs.sch.uk

Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact the Office Manager at Castle School Office@castle.cambs.sch.uk
